
There's no way you're going to get this free movie download without knowing what it is. It's the second installment in the trilogy of films known as Ta Ra Rum Pum, which was released in 1952. It is directed by Mervyn Leroy and stars Leonid Trauberg, Leni Trauberg, Tony Hancock, Eric Sykes and David Tomlinson. The film tells the story of an old schoolteacher who lives on a small Caribbean island. He encounters British music hall performers on his property when he is attempting to teach his students Latin grammar - particularly about using prepositions correctly (and how they relate with punctuation). The film features many famous British music hall performers including Johnnie Ray, Virginia McKenna, Jack Hylton, Bert Allinson, George Robey, Dickie Valentine and Jimmy James. What you'll find when you download this free movie is a large collection of music performed by these performers with the most famous being "Daisy Daisy" sung by Ruby Murray. The movie itself was released in 1951 and is approximately 88 minutes in length. It is currently available on Youtube for viewing.
